

Learning Without Walls 2019 Annual Conference

4th October 2019

Registration - 9.15am

Clandeboyne Estate, Bangor, County Down

Numbers limited to – 60 delegates

FREE for NIFSA Subscribing Members (limited to 2 places per organisation).

(Subscribing NIFSA members pay an annual membership of £100. Non-members £65 per delegate charge on admission).

Agenda

9.15-9.30 Tea/coffee and registration

9.30 – Opening by Lady Dufferin and Brian Poots

9.45 – Professor Carmel O’Sullivan, Trinity College, Dublin – research around the importance of outdoor learning in children and young people’s lives in 21st century education.

10.30 – Tea/coffee

10.45 – Workshop 1 – 4 workshops of 15 people

- a) Paper making – George Lyttle
- b) Woodland cooking - Richard McMeekin
- c) Introduction to tools and wood carving - Amy Dixon
- d) Storytelling and imagination - Amabel Clarke

11.45-12.30 - Lunch/networking

12.30-1.30 – Workshop 2 – as above

1.35–2.00 Members update – Accreditation and Friends of Forest School and much more

2.00 Lightening lectures –

- a) Dr Rhonda Mitchell-Barret – How to utilise limited space effectively
- b) Woodland Trust – Free tree scheme
- c) Carl Edwards – LEAF (Learning About Agriculture and Farms)
- d) Mark O’Connor – Field Studies Council, Ireland – Forest School CPD courses

Click here to register now for the Learning Without Walls 2019 conference